CITY GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Peter denied even knowing Jesus by a fire just months before this. What usually decides whether you cave under pressure or speak up in it?
2. The Sanhedrin couldn't argue with a healed man standing in the room. What's the "evidence standing next to you" — something God has done that you can't fully explain away?
3. Peter and John had no formal training, only time spent with Jesus. Where does a lack of credentials talk you out of speaking up for Him?
4. "We cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard." What has God done in your life that you've gone quiet about instead of speaking?
5. The council's real fear was the truth "spreading among the people." Has fear of consequences ever kept you from letting truth spread through your own circle?
6. Name one relationship this week where obedience to God might cost you comfort with people. What would speaking actually look like there?
